

Comparison of Legislative History from NYLS to Online Databases or Document Retrieval Services

What you get from an

Online Database / Doc Retrieval

NO telephone assistance
NO expert assistance available

What you get from

New York Legislative Service, Inc.

★ Experts answer the phone ★

(I would stop right here and choose the personal, expert assistance, but there's more:)

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1) The Governor's Bill Jacket- maybe | 1) The Governor's Bill Jacket                                 |
| 2) Debate transcripts- maybe         | 2) Senate debate transcripts                                  |
|   | 3) Assembly debate transcripts                                |
|   | 4) Legislative Committee Reports                              |
|   | 5) Senate & Assembly documents                                |
|   | 6) Bar Association memos                                      |
|   | 7) Bar Association Reports                                    |
|   | 8) Law Revision Commission Reports                            |
|   | 9) Public hearing transcripts                                 |
|   | 10) Public sector memos, reports                              |
|   | 11) News clippings  |
|   | 12) Largest collection of legislative histories in existence. |
|   | 13) Also have histories for NYC Local Laws                    |
|   | 14) The only source for Constitutional histories       |
|   | 15) Documents emailed to you!                                 |
|   | 16) Same-day service  |

New York Legislative Service, Inc.

The research specialists on legislative intent and current legislation.

Personal service. Thorough research. Expertise.

15 Maiden Lane, Suite 1000, New York, NY 10038 (212) 962-2826